The attention of a generous, kind GONE BEFORE.

On last Monday evening, 11th inst., Mrs. Virginia Valentine passed peacefully awaylat her home, 611 N. 29th St., after a long and painful illness. She died in the full triumph of faith, while her soul took its flight to that beautiful region beyond the skies, where saints immortal dwell. She was the beloved wife of Mr. Walter Valentine.

The attention of a generous, kind hearted public is respectly invited to the third and fourth Sundays in June next, as the days set apart for Fifth Street Baptist Church Rally days. I am ever-mindful of the liberal support and encouragement given me in my work for the four years I have been here and respectfully ask a continuance of the same.

It will be remembered that our church was in debt about $10,000, but I am thankful to say that by the unit-
